BRIDGE: SUPERVISED PLAY Class #201

SUPERVISED PLAY

This class is designed for players relatively new to the game of bridge who want to play and improve in a friendly, supportive setting with access to guidance and feedback. Laura Burke is available to give advice on the spot related to bidding, defense, and declarer play. Participants should have some basic knowledge of bridge and some playing experience. This is a virtual class: players and the instructor are joined in a toll-free conference call and “meet” online at Bridge Base to play and discuss a series of randomly dealt hands.

Limited to four participants. With sufficient interest, a second class may be added on the same day.

INSTRUCTOR: Laura Burke
CLASS DATES: Tuesdays, April 6, 13, 20, 27
CLASS TIMES: 2:30 – 4:30 p.m.
FEE: $48 Member, $60 Nonmember

THE READERS: HAMNET Class #102

Hamnet by Maggie O’Farrell. In 1580s England, during the Black Plague a young Latin tutor falls in love with an extraordinary, eccentric young woman. Once she settles with her husband on Henley Street in Stratford-upon Avon, Agnes becomes a fiercely protective mother and a steadfast force in the life of her young husband whose career on the London stage is taking off when his beloved young son succumbs to sudden fever. A portrait of a marriage, an evocation of a family ravaged by grief and loss and an unforgettable reimagining of a boy whose name was given to one of the most celebrated plays of all time.
